The Pashmina Store

Some of my most cherished moments with my girls are when they were babies and I would wrap them in our softest, most luxurious blanket and cuddle with them for hours. Cashmere blankets are the ultimate in luxury for baby and are well worth the indulgence.

The Pashmina Store offers the highest quality 100% pure cashmere baby blankets, at extraordinary values. Each handmade blanket is created by experienced artisans in Nepal, utilizing the finest pashmina in the world. The lavish baby blankets are 3-ply, providing the perfect weight and thickness for little babies. Blankets are finished with the ultra soft silky satin and stitched to perfection. Their blankets are lightweight, yet warm, exceptionally soft and supple. I fell in love with these blankets the moment I held one. What's even better, is that they make mommy blankets too.

The Pashmina Store has been specializing in top-quality Grade A luxurious cashmere products since 2000. While on a her travels to Southeast Asia, founder Charlene Martina found a deep appreciation for the process of creating each handmade cashmere item. "Pashmina is the traditional name for the very finest grade of cashmere wool. Because of it's unique softness and comforting warmth, pashmina is also known as the "diamond fabric" and the "soft gold of high Asia." Put simply, it is the finest, softest and warmest wool available anywhere."

The Pashmina Store offers a wide selection of cashmere shawls, scarves, blankets, and more, in a variety of colors made exclusively for The Pashmina Store. Their pashmina shawls are fashionable accessories that are essential to a wardrobe year round. Their accessories have been featured in Good Housekeeping, Southern Bride, Style Bakery and Inc. and they have sold almost 100,000 pashmina and cashmere products to date. Their fabulous service includes free standard shipping and 30-day satisfaction guarantee.
